

Anti-Racism in Indigenous Health

Population and Public Health

Staff Development Day

June 21 & 23, 2016

Today's Objectives

1. Describe a framework for understanding how multilevel racism impacts Indigenous peoples' access and experience of health care
2. Understand how racism impacts the health and well being of Indigenous peoples
3. Consider Indigenous ways of knowing and their impact on Indigenous health and well being

Today's Outline

Time	Agenda
8:30am	Welcome Welcome Song and Prayer Dr. Catherine Cook Carolyn Perchuk & Dr. Lawrence Elliot
9:00	Levels of Racism Dr. Marcia Anderson DeCoteau
9:15	Leading with Kindness: An approach to anti-racist health care The Mothering Project
10:15	BREAK
10:45	Reflections on White Privilege and White Fragility Dr. Ian Whetter
11:15	Learning Together
12:00	Closing Song and Prayer

Welcome

- Dr. Catherine Cook, Vice President, Population & Aboriginal Health

Welcome

- Carolyn Perchuk, Director & Dr. Lawrence Elliot, MOH & Medical Director, Population and Public Health

Closing

Thank you!

Closing the Gaps in Indigenous Health Working Group

- Dr. Marcia Anderson DeCoteau, MOH
- Lea Mutch, CNS
- Kim Bailey, Manager, Healthy Sexuality & Harm Reduction
- Craig Ross, Program Specialist, Healthy Sexuality & Harm Reduction
- Hannah Moffatt, Population Health Equity Initiatives Leader
- Kandice Leonard, Aboriginal Health Programs
- Shane Patterson, Aboriginal Health Programs

Thank you!

PPH Staff Development Team

- Alison Campbell, Public Health Nurse
- Cheryl Cusack, Clinical Nurse Specialist
- Deanna Betteridge, Team Manager
- Sara Klippenstein, Families First Home Visitor
- Martina Gornik-Marion, Public Health Dietician
- Diane Mee, Public Health Coordinator
- Claire Meiklejohn, Community Facilitator
- Hannah Moffatt, Population Health Equity Initiatives Leader
- Merrilee Sigvaldason, Manager, Facility and Support Services
- Krista Wilson, Team Manager

PPH Staff Development 2015/16

- Standing Team Agenda (e.g., Let's Talk series)
- 3 Webinars
 - Built Environment
 - Indigenous Health Promotion
 - Community Development
- Staff ½ day: Anti-Racism in Indigenous Health

Staff Feedback Survey Forthcoming to Support Future Activities